

Your Data – SPT and Busking

- The SPT Marketing team from time to time will run competitions allowing members of the public to win the opportunity to perform (busk) in the Glasgow Subway.
- To enter and for a chance to win an opportunity to perform via a busking competition, you must submit a competition entry email attaching a video recording of a musical performance by you to communications@spt.co.uk.
- SPT collects and uses your personal information provided through your competition entry email, including all video/audio content, only to enable us to select a competition winner.
- We collect and use the following personal information that you provide to SPT when you submit your competition entry email:
 - Your full name;
 - Full postal address;
 - Email address;
 - Video/audio recording of your musical performance.
- SPT will keep the information collected through your competition entry email until the staff competition winner is announced after which, all competition entry emails and video/audio recordings are deleted.
- If you do not want SPT to use your personal information as we have described above, you should not submit an email entering the competition to the SPT email address. In order to administer the competition, we need to reasonably and proportionately collect and use the personal data described here.
- As and when any changes are made to the information SPT receives from you in connection with staff competitions, or how we use that information, this notice will be updated.

Your rights and how to exercise those rights.

We have a special part of our website dedicated to the new rights that data subjects have under the GDPR. You can find that here.
