If you want to get around Strathclyde you want to get a ZoneCard - your truly flexible season ticket for unlimited travel by rail, Subway, most buses and some ferries.

Purchasing your ZoneCard

ZoneCard can be purchased for the first time at most staffed ScotRail stations and Strathclyde Partnership for Transport (SPT) travel centres - all you need is one passport sized photo (proof of date of birth is needed for children under 16 years of age). Remember, your ZoneCard is not transferable.

The map overleaf shows the area covered by ZoneCard - for example, Kilmarnock is in zone K1 and Ayr is in zone A1. Simply select the zones you need to travel through - the minimum number of zones you can buy is two - and you can enjoy unlimited travel with participating operators.

If you hold a valid ticket for either G1 or G2, you are also able to travel within the shaded city centre area - see cream shaded area of enlarged map of areas G1 and G2 - and on the Subway system. If you hold a valid ticket for either G1 or G2 and wish to travel in an outer Glasgow zone (G3 to G8) a minimum of three zones is required. If you possess three Glasgow zones, you will have the freedom to travel in all Glasgow zones (G1 to G8).

ZoneCard is valid from Sunday to Saturday and can be renewed from the Thursday preceding the expiry date on your ticket. If you do not have a current ZoneCard, you can buy one on the Saturday prior to its validity. Please note the ticket will not be valid for use until the following day.

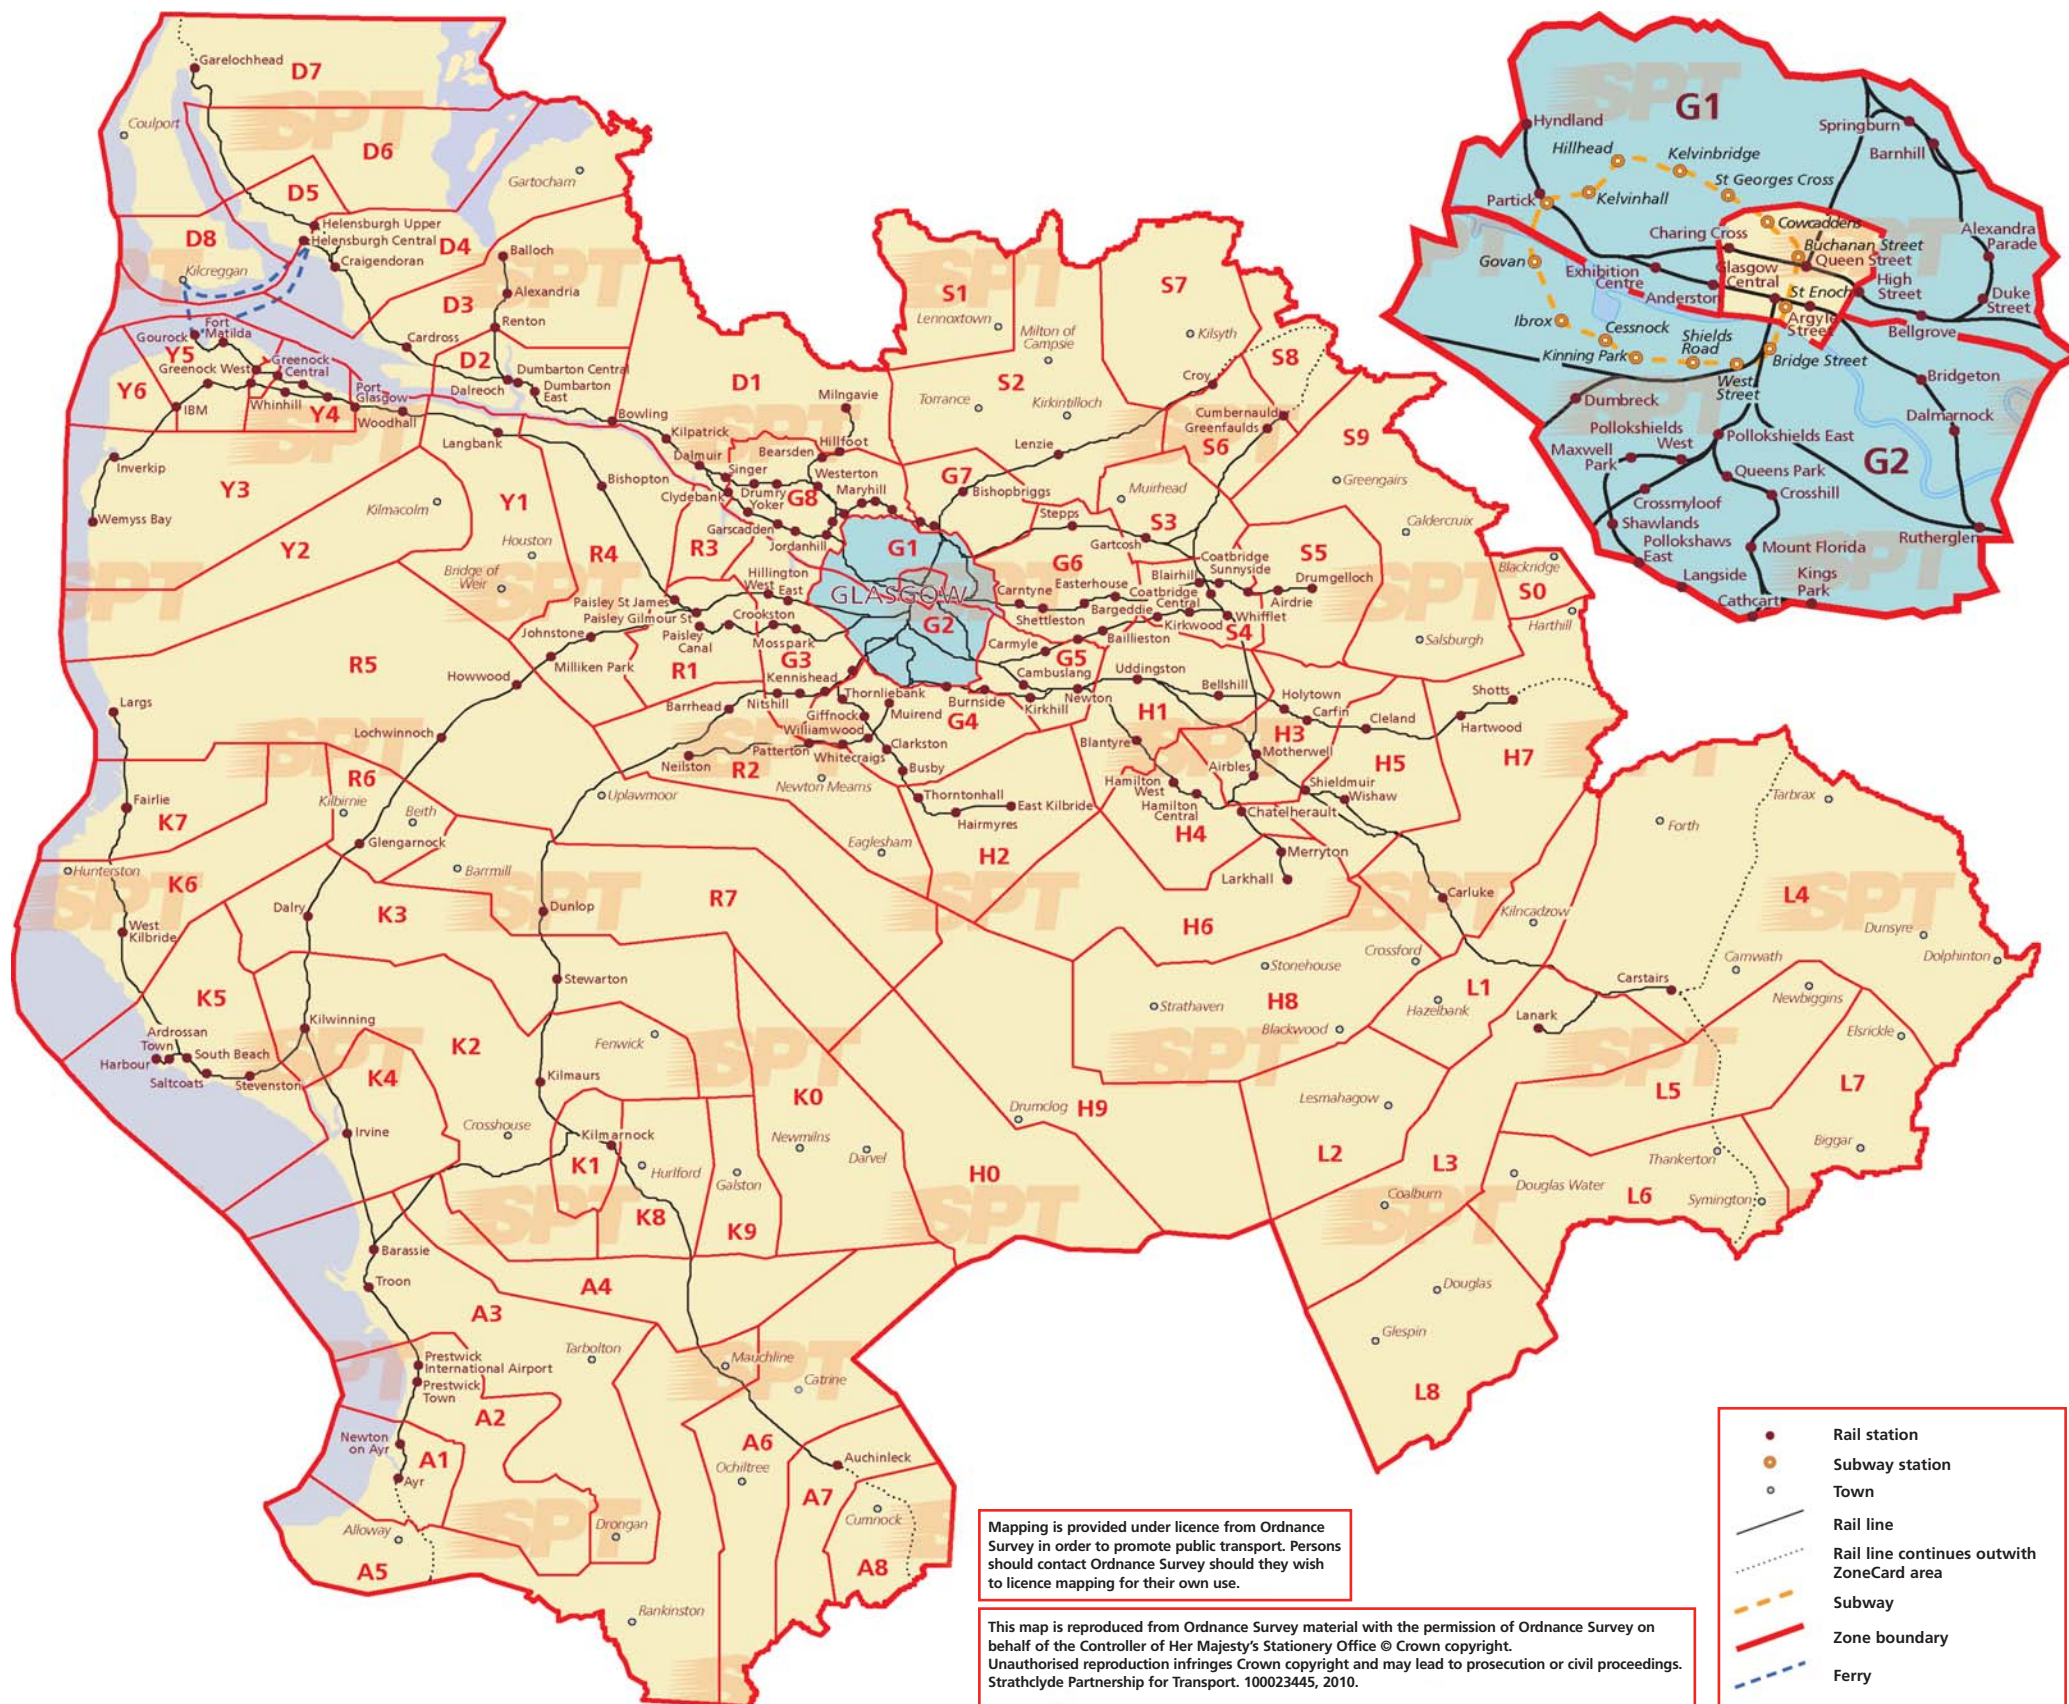

Refunds

We cannot give a refund or replacement for a lost or stolen ZoneCard, therefore insurance is recommended. No refunds will be given on weekly tickets. Refunds are only available on unused complete weeks of all other tickets and an administration fee of £3.00 will be charged. To obtain a refund you should post your ZoneCard to Service Performance, Buchanan Bus Station, 10 Killermont Street, Glasgow G2 3NP or deliver your ZoneCard to any SPT travel centre.
