

Scottish Showcase is back for 2010!

The success of The Scottish Showcase Travel Planning event in 2008 has resulted in high demand for another!

The event draws a wide audience of travel planning professionals from across the country and is an ideal day out to share ideas and best practice.

This year's event proves to be bigger and better than before, with high quality speakers, exhibitors and some great discussions planned.

The Scottish Showcase 2010 is being held on Friday 29th October in Glasgow City Hall's prestigious Recital Rooms.

If you would like more information on any aspect of the showcase then please contact the organisers at:

scottishshowcase@googlemail.com